

The Dying Words of Mr. THOMAS GRANTHAM, (who departed this Life, January 17, 1691,) spoken by him within two Minutes of his Death, as those whose Names are affixed, can testify.

FRIENDS, I am in a very weak Condition: And as this is the Sabbath, with me it will be the Everlasting Sabbath; for now I am going off the Stage of this World. Therefore I recommend you to the Grace of God, that you would walk stedfastly in the Faith of Jesus Christ, as by the Grace of God I have done to this my Live's End; for, by the Grace of God, I have not defrauded or polluted any Person in the World, as now I am going to answer before God the Father. I came not amongst you for Riches or Honour, but to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ, to spend and be spent for your Good, both by Preaching and Printing; which Words and Works I recommend unto you, to strengthen you, in which I have preached, (in which Faith I live and die) which have been according to the Gospel of Jesus Christ, in which I would have you stand stedfast to the End, not wavering; but fight the good Fight of Faith, lay hold on Eternal Life. I desire you for the Lord's sake;

fake, to walk together, and keep the Unity of the Spirit in the Bond of Peace, as Christ hath commanded you ; Then are you my Disciples, if you love one another. Beloved, build up your selves in your most holy Faith, praying in the Holy Ghost : Keep your selves in the Love of God, looking for the Mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto Eternal Life, as I have told you before. Submit your selves to the Will of God, and to every Ordinance of Man, for the Lord's sake ; and give Honour to whom Honour is due ; and walk peaceably with all Men, and so shall no Man have cause to speak evil of you. As for my part, since I have been amongst you, I have been made a Scoff and Gazing-stock of many People, which I freely forgive them all, and heartily pray that God would forgive them, and shew them the Errour of their Ways ; and I would desire that you would all pray for them, and not seek any Revenge. And to be short, I must leave you ; do not grieve nor mourn for me ; though I die, I shall rise to Glory, where I desire that we may all meet, and see one anothers Faces at the last Day, knowing one another, and rejoice in Glory : For I have conquer'd the Infernal Enemy by this Faith, and have made the Way plain and easy to me. And now I commit you to the Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ ; and the Love of God, and the Communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all.
Amen.
